

25. 12. 2015

The Archcouncil of Moscow Award 2015 For the Nursery School in Tushino by TPO “Reserve”

The laureates of the Archcouncil of Moscow Award are announced on December, 25, 2015. The annual national award is initiated to mark out the best projects matching the principal objects of the city politics in architecture and urban development.

We are delighted to have been nominated and awarded in the contest “The best architectural and urban concept for education and medicine” for the proposal of a nursery school in Tushino residential area. The architects of the project: Vladimir Plotkin, Sergey Uspensky, Elena Pomigueva, Tatjana Maksimova; project engineer Andrey Fjodorov. Our congratulations to the managing company of the project “Tushino-2018” AO.