

27.10. 2016

The “Skolkovo Park for Living” residence by TPO Reserve is honoured with the International Property Awards 2016/2017 in Great Britain

The premium class club-type residence “Skolkovo Park for Living” by TPO Reserve is honoured with the International Property Awards 2016/2017 in Great Britain. The Winner Ceremony took place on October, 27 in London.

The International Property Awards is in its 25th year and judged by an independent panel of 70 industry experts. Judging focuses on design, quality, service, innovation, originality, and commitment to sustainability. TPO Reserve has competed against the best professionals across Europe to be recognized in the Architecture/ Multiple Residence category.

The “Skolkovo Park for Living” residence (2014) celebrates vivid interaction with the landscape and complex urban setting, a unique image predicted by the place, special environment and life quality. It is a remarkable and responding to its time building, embodying anew the professional credo of TPO Reserve.

We are delighted to congratulate our Client, the Zarechye-development LLC on the high appreciation of this project. We also extend congratulations to the authors of the project and the presentation, as well as the TPO Reserve team.