“Urban Awards 2015” for the “City on the River Tushino-2018” project

The winners of the Urban Awards 2015 – an annual National Prize in the field of the urban development and real estate – have been announced on November, 25, 2015. The “City on the River Tushino-2018” project with TPO Reserve as General designer became the winner in two nominations. The debutant Block 1 of the future district awarded as “Best comfort-class residential complex under construction”. In the “Best complex development of the territory” nomination the general development plan of the former Tushino airfield has been honoured. We are delighted to congratulate the developer and the managing company of the project “Tushino-2018” AO as well as the TPO Reserve design team on the prestigious award.
